LOCATION

The National Museum of the US Air Force – Situated at historic Wright Patterson Air Force Base in Dayton, Ohio. The NMUSAF is 1.5 Hours from Cincinnati Airport and 2 hours from Indianapolis Airport.

ACTIVITIES

Wednesday Evening, September 19th

- ❖ Registration and social venue to indulge in hangar flying with old acquaintances and new friends.

Thursday, September 20th

- ❖ A full day of presentations by leading experts at the Hope Hotel and Conference Center

Friday September 21st.

- ❖ Another day of presentations on our favorite subject.
- ❖ Friday Morning - More presentations leading to an early afternoon dedication ceremony for the League sponsored WW I Memorial at the National Museum of the USAF. The dedication will feature honored guests and fly-overs by the dawn patrol airplanes and weather permitting, aircraft from the 9th Bomb Wing.
- ❖ Friday evening will be a mixer with the Dawn Patrol Rendezvous pilots and ground crews at the Museum with heavy hors d'oeuvres.

But wait... it's not over yet ! Saturday and Sunday

The biennial Dawn Patrol WW I Fly-In will take place on Saturday and Sunday. The League will have its traditional booth and Aeronaut Books and the NMUSAF have sponsored a League Speakers Series tent with nearly continuous presentations over the weekend.

Enjoy the flying, vendors and additional League activity for the entire weekend.
